

Coach Profile

Carlos Aguirre - Perth

Carlos is a qualified Industrial Engineer with extensive project and production management experience in the furniture, chemicals, texture and aluminium sectors.

His qualifications include a Bachelor in Industrial Engineering and a Masters Degree in Finance.

Having previously held Vice General Manager, Plant Manager, Operations Manager and Production/Manufacturing Management roles, Carlos has developed the ability to liaise equally with all levels of staff as well as with clients both domestic and international, and suppliers.

During his career Carlos has been heavily involved with monitoring and evaluation of plant activities; from the purchasing of raw materials to export shipping, production levels and staffing levels.

With an eye for detail, Carlos is a thorough professional who sees the value in Lean and Competitive Manufacturing principles and is looking to assist companies "improve" their business.

Carlos has very quickly become one of our most sort after coaches and now has a reputation of making a real difference to industry in Western Australia. Carlos specializes in Competitive Manufacturing programs and lean implementation workshops.

Sample Client Listing:

To find out how Carlos can assist your business, please call him on 0427 593 145.